COMMENTS: Original will not follow by US Mail.

Dear Ms. Taylor,

You may recall this case; the Chapter 13 Trustee forwarded som $1,635.65 to the Court as such funds were unclaimed by the intended creditor - Mitchell, Sweet and Associates. We since learned that the intended creditor went out of business and the claim was then assigned to UNISA as a collecting agent for the original creditor Universal Technical Institute. UNISA has since attempted to collect the funds from the Court but have been unable to do so either due to lack of documentation or lack of personal knowledge or skill in following the Court's guidelines for obtaining such funds.

At this time our client is being severely prejudiced. He is under constant threat of wage garnishment and the debt owed to the student loan creditor; which was originally scheduled to be paid at 100 cents on the dollar, has interest running on the unpaid debt. The funds currently held by the Court are sufficient to pay off the debt owed and the Debtor wishes the funds be remitted to UNISA.

Please review this matter and advise how we may facilitate payment to UNISA as obviously UNISA is unable to do it themselves. Can the funds simply be returned to the Debtor if he request such and has his request notarized - he could then remit payment directly - or perhaps we might need to file a Motion with the Court directing the funds be paid to UNISA or reopening the case so that we can change the intended creditor's name?

Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Williams
Supervising Paralegal

Re: MIRANDA, Jorge H. - Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case No. 00-5-0574 MMor

Dear Ms. Kent:

This office represents the above-named person in a pending Chapter 13 Bankruptcy case. Mr. Miranda provided for his student loans to be paid in full through his Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Plan. Creditor Mitchell, Sweet & Associates filed a Proof Of Claim for the debt owed on one of Mr. Miranda's student loans and such was being paid through his Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Plan. Mr. Miranda's case is now in the process of being discharged and the Chapter 13 Trustee has advised that funds forwarded to Mitchell, Sweet & Associates have been returned as address unknown.

Mr. Miranda has now advised this office that Unisa, Inc. is collecting on the aforementioned student loan debt. As the Trustee was unable to locate Mitchell, Sweet & Associates she forwarded the funds due them to the United States Bankruptcy Court for safe keeping. At this time request is made that you contact the United States Bankruptcy Court regarding the funds being held in favor of Mitchell, Sweet & Associates or its assignees. The address to which you should send your inquire and demand for payment is as follows:

United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California, Attn: Diane Christensen, 235 Pine Street, P.O. Box 7341, San Francisco, CA 94120-7341

If you have any questions or concerns please contact this office at (831) 649-0200 or via e-mail at info@debt doctors.com.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Williams

Re: Jorge Miranda

Dear Toni,

I am writing this letter to clarify the relationship between Universal Technical Institute/NASCAR Technical Institute/MMI and UNISA in order to make it possible for funds to be released to UNISA for Jorge Mirandas' Perkins loan account on our behalf.

Our institution loans students' Perkins funds and we hold the promissory notes on these loans; however, we do not service those loans. We hire third party servicers to maintain our Perkins loan accounts and are currently having these loans serviced by UNISA. We originally relied on Mitchell Sweet & Associates to service our Perkins loans until we changed servicers on April 1, 2000 to FAME and then again when we turned all of our Perkins loan accounts over to UNISA in May of 2001.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the above statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Sincerely,

Anyta Kelly
